Plan Father and Son Dinner Next Friday

Affair at Presbyterian Church to Climax Boy Week
Activities

SERVICE THIS SUNDAY

Boy Week will be celebrated at the Narberth Presbyterian Church with special services on Sunday, May 1. The boys have been holding an election of officers, who will take charge of the Sunday School services and a boy choir is being organized for the regular church services on that date.

As a fitting conclusion of the week's activities the annual father and son dinner is being planned to be held at the church on Friday evening, May 6, at 6.30. This dinner is being sponsored by the Troop Committee of the new Narberth, No. 2, Boy Scouts.

Every father and every boy who has attended one of these dinners will testify that it was a regular "home-man's" affair. The committee is planning to make this one bigger and better than ever. There will not be a dull moment from the time when the feed-bag is slipped into position until taps are sounded for the grand finale. There will be plenty of cats, plenty of singing, plenty of noise, and plenty of entertainment. The latter will include games that will test the old man's ability to keep in step with his so-called "chip of the old block."

Every boy should bring a father and every father should bring at least one boy. Tickets are for sale at 50 cents per plate or one dollar for a ticket which will admit a father and one son. The committee must have all applications for tickets by Monday evening, May 2. Send applications to D. Warren Wright or O. H. Graves.

Local chairman for Boy Week are as follows:

Robert E. Williamson, West Manayunk; William C. Foote, Bala-Cynwyd; H. J. Mosteller, Narberth; Edward J. Strobach, Penn Wynne; Frank Barsby, Wynnewood; Lou Brechenin, South Ardmore; Fred C. Peters, Ardmore; Frank A. McGrady, Bryn Mawr; Nathan P. Pechin, Wayne; Guy Wheeler, Devon; Fred Armstrong Berwyn, Paoli, Malvern.

A feature of the Narberth participation will be the apparatus of the Narberth Fire Company in the parade on Saturday, May 7, and the Narberth Scout Troops.

World Court Advocate, W. Curtis Bok, Speaks in Boro

"It is not the idiots, not the lunatics that favor the entry of the United States into the World Court, but the ex-service men, the Bar, the women, labor, farmers and the press," said W. Curtis Bok, Philadelphia attorney and resident of Bryn Mawr, in an address before the James C. Simpson Men's Association at the Narberth Baptist Church on Tuesday night.

An exposition of the Court's organization and method of operation was given by Mr. Bok, together with an analysis of its record since its formation in 1921. It has decided 37 cases, he said, on which there has been no question or objection raised.

"I can't see how American sovereignty would be jeopardized," he said, "by the entry of the United States into the Court. It doesn't involve joining the League of Nations and we can't be taken into Court without our consent."

Dr. Barnes Speaker at Firemen's Banquet

Keep Politics, Religion and Gambling Out of Company, He Says

MULIERES GIVE AFFAIR

Politics, religion and gambling should be kept out of the Company, for when they are brought into affairs harmony will go out.

Thus spoke Dr. Albert C. Barnes, of Merion, art patron and honorary vice-president of the Narberth Fire Company, at the annual dinner tendered to the firemen last Thursday night by the Mulieres, women's auxiliary of the Company.

"The Narberth Fire Company and its affairs," said Dr. Barnes, "are handled in an efficient manner and will continue to be successful as long as the members remember that their sole aim is to protect public property and render other services to the community."

Dr. Barnes reviewed the progress of the company since its founding in 1897 and praised the firemen for their co-operation in local affairs, with the Borough Council and other organizations in the community.

Tristan B. duMarais, president of the Fire Company for the past twenty-six years, acted as toastmaster. He congratulated the members on the sociability and friendliness and expressed the hope that this condition would continue.

Other speakers included Burgess Henry H. A. Frye, who gave the invocation; Superintendent Charles P. Smith, of the Lower Merion Police Force; Anthony McGramm, Fire Marshal of Lower Merion Township; Clifford W. Bates, Edward S. Haws and Robert F. Wood, members of the Narberth Borough Council; the presidents and chiefs of the various units of the Lower Merion Township Fire Department, and Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, president of the Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company.

Other guests were C. B. Kaerber, C. L. Reifsnider, W. D. Evans, A. C. Needham, John R. Hall, Harry B. Wall, C. B. Young, Edwin P. Dold, James F. Purse, George B. Supplee and Robert A. Mueller.

Several accordion selections were played by John Doranzo and Frank Mariana.

The menu was prepared and served by the following members of the Mulieres: Mrs. Albert Nulty, Miss Anna Foley, Mrs. Charles Viguers, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Goldsmith, Miss Margaretta C. Runyon, Mrs. William Rodgers, Mrs. C. C. Tyson, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. Clifford Bates, Miss Flora Kurzenkabe, Miss Mary Zentmayer, Mrs. Mabel G. Johnson, Mrs. Henry Kast, Mrs. John E. Burrell, Mrs. Isaac Melrose, Mrs. Edward Haws, Mrs. Howard Haws, Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton, Mrs. George Gilpin, Jr., Mrs. Charles Haist, Mrs. Edward Conner, Mrs. Frank X. Purcell, Mrs. Charles E. Harnden and Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller.

World Survey Made at Community Club

Mrs. Hope Le Barr Roberts
Takes Members on 16-Minute
Trip Around World

ELECT SOME OFFICERS

Mrs. George B. Supplee, chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Women's Community Club, of Narberth, announced the result of the election of officers at the meeting on Tuesday afternoon held in the Community Building, as follows: Second vice-president, Mrs. Bernard F. Keenan; recording secretary, Mrs. W. R. Knauer; new directors, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. William Lewis and Miss Margaretta C. Runyon. The election of the treasurer was postponed until an early meeting in October.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Hope Le Barr Roberts, who announced that the topic of her lecture on Current Events was "Around the World in 16 Minutes." Mrs. Roberts first began with the countries of South America, giving a brief sketch of happenings and conditions in such countries as the Argentine, Chile, Brazil and several others. From there she dwelt on conditions in the Orient and the recent Sino-Japanese conflict, dwelling particularly on the spread of Communism in the East and the efforts of the League of Nations to settle the dispute in China and Japan, which will probably result in the withdrawal of Japan from the League. The next stop in her trip around the

Merger Petition Under Way; Public Meeting is Planned

A petition for the dissolution of the Charter of the Borough is being prepared by Franklin D. Wright, Norristown attorney, it was reported this week by the Citizens' Committee advocating the merger of Narberth and Lower Merion.

The next step in the proceedings will be a public meeting, which it is expected will be called for the week of May 9. All citizens interested in the matter, either for or against, are invited to attend. The meeting will probably be held in the Narberth Public School auditorium on account of a greater seating capacity than the Community Building. The exact date and other details will be announced next week.

Claim High Gas Rates Due to Lower Quality

Complaint Made at Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club on Tuesday

TAKEN UP WITH UTILITY

Complaint that Main Line gas bills are higher because the quality of gas is lower was made at the Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club's meeting held in the Cynwyd Fire Hall Tuesday night.

The gas company, like everyone else, declared Chairman Henry J. Kite, of the club's public service committee, has been compelled to retrench and possibly its equipment is not in the best of condition. This would account for a flow of less than 550 British Thermal Units of gas per cubic foot, leading to greater use of gas in the home in order to offset the alleged diminished quality.

Some members of the club produced gas bills showing a great increase in cost for recent months over corresponding periods of previous years. A complaint is being made with the utility company, in the interest of all Main Line consumers.

Speakers at the meeting were M. P. Burlingame, president of the Main Line Kiwanis Club, and S. E. Downs, superintendent of Lower Merion Public Schools. Music was furnished by the Bala-Cynwyd M. E. Church, whose assistant minister, Rev. Herbert R. Howells, entertained with several baritone solos.

Mr. Burlingame's brief address concerned his Kiwanis Club, to whose meetings Tuesday evenings at Whitehall, Haverford, he invited his audience. The Main Line club, he said, has for members leading business men—and their chief competitors—in the communities from Narberth to Paoli. Kiwanis' chief care is for underprivileged children; the Main Line club has given special attention and aid to a boys' camp.

Mr. Downs' address was a glowing, interesting, comprehensive tale of the life and achievements of Benjamin Franklin, the first American. He praised the coming Franklin Memorial, 20th street and the Parkway, as a fitting tribute to Philadelphia's philosopher - inventor - printer - statesman - patriot.

New Scout Troop Preparing for Main Line Contests

The new Narberth Boy Scout Troop, No. 2, has been hard at work on contests for the selection of teams which will represent the troop at the Main Line Meet, which is being held at the Merion Tribute House this Saturday afternoon.

There will be contests in knot tying, signaling, and first aid, and it is expected that the competition will be keen. The boys have made splendid progress and hope to make a good showing in this meet.

On Friday evening, May 15, the troop was given an exhibition by one of the prize winning first aid teams from the Bell Telephone Company. It was a very practical lesson in first aid treatment.

On the second Friday in May a representative from the Davey Tree Co. will give the boys a talk on trees. Anyone interested in Boy Scout work or anyone interested in boys, is cordially invited to visit the meetings. The boys meet in the Narberth Presbyterian Church Social Hall every Friday evening at 7.30.

Soup Sale Today

Home-made vegetable soup and clam chowder will be on sale from 12 to 2 P. M. this Friday in the Parish Hall of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church. The proceeds of the sale are for the benefit of the Official Board.

GOOD FEELING PREVAILS

Charles V. Noel, Mrs. Louise V. Cockrill and Mrs. Maud K. Reeves were re-elected to their County Committee places by 3-to-1 majorities, and the County Organization carried Narberth handsomely all along the line. That, in brief, is the local story of last Tuesday's Primary, but it has added an entirely new chapter to Narberth's political history and undoubtedly will have an important bearing on future campaigns.

While the local Republicans were not lacking in interest in the contests which were waged for the more conspicuous places on the ballot, it actually was the fight for the Committee places which drew Narberth voters to the polls in unusually large numbers, and the decisive manner in which they recorded themselves should discourage factionalism in Narberth for a long time in the future.

In the Republican Primary last fall, Fred Walzer, running for sheriff, received 368 votes in the First District and 498 votes in the Second District, as against 65 votes for the Organization candidate for sheriff in the First District and 73 votes for the Organization candidate in the Second District. It was on the basis of that showing that J. J. Cabrey, leader of that faction, had developed the argument that "We are the majority and, therefore, we should control the Committee." It did seem to be a plausible assumption and, on the basis of it, three citizens, Arthur L. Cooke, Mrs. Maud Miller and Mrs. Louise Town, were persuaded to run for the Committee in opposition to Mr. Noel, Mrs. Cockrill and Mrs. Reeves.

The campaign, as it developed, however, quickly assumed a question of Party loyalty and especially of loyalty to the Johnson organization in the County. It was revealed by the outcome that the Republicans of Narberth have no feeling of hostility toward Mr. Johnson. The voters were confronted by an entirely different set of circumstances than was the case when Mr. Walzer was running for sheriff last fall, and naturally they have recorded themselves differently.

Mr. Cooke, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Town were, in themselves, good citizens and good candidates. The personal loyalty of their friends was conspicuous throughout the campaign and, at the close, each of them revealed that spirit of being a good loser, which Americans always admire. Mr. Cooke was very prompt in going to Mr. Noel and congratulating him on his victory. Mr. Noel remarked later, "I want to be sure to have it in the paper that Art Cooke is a mighty good sport and the way he came up and congratulated me on winning was fine. He is the kind of a man we want to see taking a more active and prominent part in public affairs." Mrs. Reeves revealed that Mrs. Town called her on the telephone and said, "I want to congratulate you on your handsome victory and, in saying so, I am expressing not only my personal sentiments, but those of the Walzer organization." Similarly, Mrs. Miller expressed her sincere sentiments to Mrs. Cockrill.

Congratulations to the winning candidates were also extended by Fred Walzer. "I wish to heartily congratulate the successful candidates," he said, yesterday, "and to commend both sides for the fine vote given the Organization."

These incidents are recorded here because they are desirable symptoms of the fact that the cleavage in local Republican ranks which this Primary contest naturally developed, are in the

Dr. Barnes Nominated Trustee of Narberth Fire Company

Dr. Albert C. Barnes, of Merion, was nominated a trustee of the Narberth Fire Company at its meeting on Tuesday night in the fire house. An honorary vice-president of the Company, Dr. Barnes has taken an active interest in the affairs of the Narberth Company for some time.

Other officers nominated without opposition were: Charles V. Noel, chief; Tristan B. duMarais, president; Edwin P. Dold, vice-president; George B. Supplee, treasurer; Robert Mueller, financial secretary, and James F. Purse, corresponding secretary.

Mr. Purse was also nominated a trustee, there being two vacancies to fill.

Narberth to Play in New Twilight League

Six Team Circuit to Get Under Way on May 23; Home
Games Mondays

OTHER BASEBALL NEWS

The Narberth Baseball Club will be a member this season of the brand new Del-Mont twilight league, which includes six teams. All Narberth's home games in this league will be played on Monday nights, beginning May 23.

Teams comprising the league are Narberth, Bryn Mawr, Brookline, Newtown Square, Highland Park and Darby A. A. Its officers are: W. Y. C. Justis, president; James Evans, vice-president, and Charles Harnden, of Narberth, secretary and treasurer.

Narberth will play independent twilight baseball on Wednesday nights at home and will play away in the Del-Mont league on other week nights.

Plans for the Main Line League season, which will open on May 21, are shaping up, although it is not yet decided whether there will be six or eight teams in the circuit this season. It may include the teams of the Del-Mont League, and, in addition, Jack Hart's Collegians and the West Phillies.

The Narberth Club will play a practice game on the Playground on May 7 with the Penn A. C. and on the 14th with Jack Hart's nine.

All candidates are urged by Manager Gene Davis to report for practice this Saturday.

MACADAMS ALSO SPEAKS

Mrs. Gustav Ketterer, president of the Woman's Clubs and Allied Organizations, outlined five points for good citizenship at the meeting of the American Citizenship Department of the Women's Community Club of Narberth in the Community Building last Thursday afternoon.

The points were given as follows: The registration of all voting citizens, education, law observance, loyalty and patriotism. She particularly stressed the education of the women in regard to the local and national government.

Mrs. Norma Carson, Philadelphia magistrate, stressed the need of honest magistrates, as the election of such will have a great influence in any community. Mrs. Carson advised the election of the man or woman fitted for the office. She claims that no organization has any right to back any particular candidates if they are not honest and capable of filling the position efficiently.

The Rev. Samuel MacAdams, pastor of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, who addressed the meeting, declared that too much tolerance is frequently shown to foreigners who come to America and refuse to become assimilated with American life.

"If they don't like our country, they don't have to stay here," he declared. "Let them return to the land of their birth. Their presence here endangers our American institutions. America offers more opportunities than any

Now Let Factionalism Cease!

The Narberth Republicans have definitely recorded themselves in favor of the County Organization. They have done so decisively. They have recorded that 3-to-1 preference after a campaign in which loyalty to the Organization was the principal issue.

This is a highly desirable outcome so far as the interests of the community are concerned, because it was, of course, obvious that the Narberth Republicans could never unseat the County Organization. They always unseated themselves when they voted against the Organization. They have repeatedly indicated their overwhelming support for local men who have run against the Organization, but in doing so they have been unable either to elect those candidates or to advance any discernible party or community interest whatsoever.

In the long run, this independent voting has developed for Narberth a reputation of being unstable and disloyal so far as the upper reaches of the party are concerned.

It is quite generally known that a prominent local man, who was in every respect well qualified to fill an important Federal office, was recently an applicant for appointment to that office. It is said that he had the endorsement of a member of President Hoover's Cabinet, and that the President himself would have regarded that appointment with favorable personal interest if it had come before him. It was necessary, however, that the appointment should be endorsed by the Republican party authorities in this State, and they were unable to grant that endorsement because the Narberth applicant had been so definitely aligned with what seemed to them to be disloyalty to the party.

This incident is mentioned here merely to emphasize that the people of Narberth and their distinguished fellow-citizens accomplished nothing by their independence, and they are now both deprived of the distinction of a meritorious appointment. In effect, they had read themselves out of the party without knowing it.

The Narberth Republicans very definitely read themselves into the party in the primary of last Tuesday. This is indicated by the fact that they gave Mr. Peters a total of 621 votes for the Legislature, against Lou Young, a local man, who received only 550, but who has in the past carried the Borough handsomely as an independent. We are inclined to agree with the comment which Walter Cowin made in his published letter last week. He said that there were much more important matters which the political leaders of the Borough might be concerned about; but, at the same time, we did recognize the necessity of the fight for the committee places, and we are gratified by the outcome if it means the end of factionalism.

It was at no time our opinion that Mr. Noel, Mrs. Cockrill and Mrs. Reeves deserved to be driven out of office because they had supported the Johnson ticket in the primary campaign last fall. If they were at that time guilty of taking sides in a primary fight in a way that is contrary to correct committee practice, then Mr. Schroeder and Mrs. Griswold, as members of the same committee, were guilty of an equal impropriety when they supported the independent candidates in the same primary contest. What is sauce for the gander is also sauce for the goose.

Fortunately, the statements which we have been able to obtain from both sides in the committee contest appear to indicate that the breach between the two groups is already in the process of healing. That is as it should be. They were all friends before they were primary foes. It should be possible for them to come together again because of the strength of community ties which should bind all of them together. There appears to be no disposition among the winners to capitalize their success at the expense of the losers, and it does not seem likely, in view of an overwhelming defeat, that the so-called independent faction will desire to try it again.

There is one other interesting conclusion which can clearly be drawn from the vote of last Tuesday's primary. That is that Narberth is overwhelmingly wet in sentiment. This is indicated by the 790 votes which went to Senator Davis, compared with the 458 which General Butler received. The 14 votes given to Mr. Adams can properly be added to the wet side, making the total recorded wet vote 804. These were, of course, Republican votes only, but there is no reason to assume that the addition of the Borough Democrats would in any way change the proportional division between wet and dry. The chances are, of course, that the Democrats would contribute more to the wet side than to the dry.

Shreds and Patches

Thirst

Why any one should want to leave the Main Line while spring is here would be difficult to explain except to a natural vagrant. Richard Hovey, a great and authoritative vagabond, has recorded:

I am fevered with the sunset,
I am fretful with the bay,
For the wander-thirst is on me
And my soul is in Cathay.

There's a schooner in the offing,
With her topsails shot with fire,
And my heart has gone aboard her
For the islands of desire.

I must forth again tomorrow!
With the sunset I must be
Hull down on the trail of rapture
In the wonder of the sea.

It was such an impulse as that, if you understand it, which caused The Vagrant last week to seek the sea. He glimpsed it merely, but he saw masts and spars, great globe trotting steamers, and he caught the salty odor of it. Also he met Pierre Tetreault and was by him conducted to a French-speaking speak-easy. Pierre no doubt would have understood Hovey's "wander-thirst," but another and more pressing thirst was filling his mind at the moment.

Enforcement

It is not Pierre's thirst that merits mention here, but there is some significance in the ease with which he was able to slake it in surroundings exclusively designed to appeal to people of his own race. The place was crowded. It was necessary to wait 15 minutes before a table was available, a period which could have been seriously passed at the open bar had not that too been so pre-empted, principally by unescorted women, that it was hardly possible to get a toe-hold on the friendly rail. Everyone was speaking French. The menus were printed completely in that language and not in the modified forms of it, which are common in swanky places. So far have we come along the road of prohibition "enforcement" that it is no longer a matter of finding a place where liquor is sold, but the competition in selling it is so great that specialized speak-easies now abound. At one time people would flock to the place where liquor could be obtained and with that available would tolerate poor food. Not so now. An excellent French chef had prepared and seasoned the delicious lunch which was served to Pierre and The Vagrant. And of the hundreds of diners and drinkers there not one seemed to be even remotely aware that a serious violation of the Federal Constitution was being not only tolerated, but aided and supported by all of them.

Leadership

"When a herd of cattle stampedes in fright," said the man from Antioch, "the fastest runner is in front. The real leader may be in the rear because it has seen no reason for joining in the stampede. In politics, in current literature, and in life in general, apparent leadership often is merely the ability to run fastest in a stampede." There is much truth in that, but the pulling power of the

Philip Barry Play at Egyptian This Week-End

Philip Barry's play, recommended recently at a Bala-Cynwyd Woman's Club meeting by Mrs. Arthur Waters—"Tomorrow and Tomorrow"—brings Ruth Chatterton and Paul Lukas to the Egyptian this Friday and Saturday nights.

Saturday's matinee feature is "Where Men Are Men," an exciting Western tale, starring Ken Maynard.

"Lady With A Past," at the Cynwyd Theatre, next Monday and Tuesday, is a very amusing comedy, starring Constance Bennett and Ben Lyon.

"The Unexpected Father," at Cynwyd, Wednesday and Thursday next, is a comedy in which four-year-old Cora Sue Collins toddles off with the stamping herd, their intolerance of those who will not run with them is difficult for many good men to resist. How many people are there who are playing bridge or golf because they are really fond of those games and naturally proficient at them? How many people are there who merely are stamped into those pursuits. The same is true in these days of drinking liquor. Many people are drinking it now because of the stampeding power of the herd. The Vagrant has seldom met any bigoted fanatic on any subject whatsoever who was so illiberal as the self-styled liberals. If the religionists viewed each other with one-half the intolerance that the liberals practice toward those not of their viewpoints, the Thirty Years Wars would break out again!

Propagandists

Every political campaign of national scope now discloses the subtle advice and management of the paid propagandist who probably has graduated from the ranks of honest advertising men. Of course, it is a legitimate practice in commercial advertising not to mention anything which is detrimental or even controversial. The paid propagandists apply that same principle to public affairs with the result that campaigns are now conducted with a careful avoidance of all controversial subjects and with a shrewd featuring up of artificial elements in the candidate or in his party platform which have been selected or created for that purpose. In the light of this development, it is beginning to be doubtful whether the practice of advertising as a whole has been completely beneficial in its influence on the country.

Thanks Neighbors

To the Editor of "Our Town:" Now that the Spring Primary is a part of ancient history, I cannot resist the opportunity to thank those neighbors and friends who so loyally voted for me on Tuesday. I value my community standing and the good will and respect of my neighbors more than any political triumph. In defeat it gives me moral victory to know that practically 2000 people who voted for me were my personal friends, and without friends or organization we were able to make a credible showing. Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away, let every individual in Narberth forget their political differences and all join hands for the best interests of this community.

Three Comedies in One Day at Narberth Theatre

A Mickey Mouse and a Charles Chase Comedy accompany Joe E. Brown's latest and funniest "Fireman, Save My Child," at the Narberth Theatre this week-end.

The appeal of "Trader Horn," authentic film version of the best-selling African tale, is so great to young and old that the Borough playhouse has secured it for presentation next Monday and Tuesday, including matinees.

Junior High School Student Government Conference Attracts 200 to Lower Merion

The second annual Junior High School Co-operative Student Government Conference was held at the Lower Merion Junior High School in Ardmore Friday.

More than 200 delegates, including teachers, students and visitors, attended. There were 35 schools located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware represented.

Edward H. Snow, dynamic principal of Lower Merion Junior High School, was the unofficial master of ceremonies. The student government conference plan was first introduced by Mr. Snow last year.

After the registration of delegates in the main foyer of the school the program opened in the auditorium with a welcome to delegates by John Byrd, Lower Merion. This was followed by the "Conference Keynote Address" by Joy Grubbs, Lower Merion. Both are officers, president and vice-president, in the Lower Merion Junior High School Senate. Music was provided by the Lower Merion Junior High School Choir and Orchestra.

In the music room of the Junior High School a demonstration of a typical home room meeting as held at Lower Merion was presented by members of Room 11 of the Lower Merion Junior High School.

The demonstration consisted of a call to order, reading of minutes and approval, treasurer's report and discussion, senators' reports and discussion, old and new senate business, home room committee reports and discussion, old business on class and home room subjects, new business on class and home room subjects, program and adjournment. Miss Mildred R. Black was the home room sponsor.

Miss Isabel K. Endslow, dean of girls, was chairman. The demonstration was followed by a discussion led by Raymond Schlosser, principal of Haverford Township High School.

Harmonica selections were given by the Lower Merion Junior High School Advanced Harmonica Club and banjo selections by Allen Macool.

Students taking part in the demonstration were Polly Roberts, president; Lawson Robertson, vice-president; William Adelhelm, secretary; Mary Williams, treasurer; Paul Chandler, parliamentarian; Joy Grubb and William Humes, senators; Philip DeLong, committee foreman; Edith Lincoln and William Bierne, scholarship committee; Roberta Cleaver and Rosalyn Hack, conduct committee; John Smith, curtain committee; Arvid Ericson, blackboard committee; William Draper, desk alignment committee; Joy Grubbs and Coleman Tily, desk inspection; Eleanor Challen, decoration committee; Adelaide Thomas, flower committee; Lawson Robertson, floor committee; Mary Mickle, bulletin board committee; Dorothy White, closet committee; William Humes, apparatus committee; Ruth Ridgeway, odds and ends committee; Audry Bickley and Jack Thomas, program committee.

A round table discussion of the value of the student court followed the demonstration. Arguments were presented by Manuel Goldberger, of the Warner Junior High School, Wilmington, Del.; that the student court was an obsolete means of regulating discipline and apt to result in forming inferior complexes among students.

Final Concert the 15th

The fourth and last concert of the present series will be given by the Main Line Orchestra at the Ardmore Theatre on Sunday evening, May 15.

In presenting the program, Adolph Vogel, conductor, will be assisted by Dr. W. F. G. Swan, associate conductor. The Dorothy Johnston Baseler harp trio will be featured in the Debussy dances.

brought to trial. Social pressure and good example through the student government groups, he said, would bring better results.

At 4.45 P. M. there was a concert by the Lower Merion Junior High School Band in the gymnasium of the school, and an exhibition by the Lower Merion gym team. At the same time teachers representing the various schools attending the conference held a round table discussion in the library. B. J. Thompson, associate superintendent of schools, Fort Lee, N. J., was chairman. Problems of leadership and co-operation with student government agencies for the successful operation of the Junior High School were discussed by Professor William C. Ash, University of Pennsylvania.

The cafeteria conference dinner was held at six o'clock. Samuel S. Gulick was toastmaster. John Byrd, president of the Lower Merion Junior High School, spoke on "The History of Our Senate;" Elfriede Mahler spoke on the "Trials and Triumphs of a Student Senator;" Dean George E. Walk of the Teachers' College, Temple University, on "The Junior High School," and Professor Roy W. Hatch, of Teachers' College, Montclair, N. J., on "Co-operative Student Government."

By ROBERT J. EDGAR

Spring beauties are cheerful things.

Claytonia virginica is their right name, and they are usually found in moist, open woods.

Narcissi multiply so rapidly that after about four years it is necessary to divide the clumps and replant the bulbs in roomier quarters. After flowering is a good time to do this. The bulbs, with all of their tops, may be planted in permanent locations; or they may be "heeled in" to ripen their foliage for the summer and replanted in October. And don't forget to mark their names—or descriptions.

Houstonia coerulea, or bluette, does well in shade as a ground cover in moist, woody soil—quite acid. The variety serpyllifolia, from the South, is even more satisfactory than the taller one. Either will do well if the soil is fairly moist; the flowers are blue in shade and last for a long time.

The white flowers, in May, of sedum ternatum are welcome in the shady garden, as this Southern variety does quite well in the woodland. Not as rampacious as the exotic sedums, ternatum makes a most satisfactory "filler" between other plants.

It is sometimes difficult to understand why folks will struggle for years in a fruitless effort to garden on a sloping bank, trying to grow grass where it don't belong and otherwise cussing green growing things. One, or two, or three dry walls—stone walls with soil plants—built to stand up without cement. The stone for such walls should be weathered, if such stones are available. The stones should be set in such a manner that their weight will hold them solidly.

One way to accomplish this is to "ramp" the wall back about four inches to the foot—or build it so that the top is farther back than the base. The soil should be good loam, not clayey and not sandy. The plants are dwarf-growing herbaceous perennials, commonly known as rock plants or "rockery" plants. On levels, between the walls, above or below, there is room for beds or borders of bulbs and perennials. Such walls may be built in sunny situations or shady ones, the plants to be selected for such conditions.

There is a dry wall above a drive in an old garden in Rose Valley where euonymus kewensis is "doing its stuff" beautifully. A flat mat of evergreen is kewensis, and it is not subject to scale as are so many varieties of its kin. Also known as euonymus minimus.

Paved terraces are another garden feature seldom seen and too seldom enjoyed. Not cement-set stones, but stones laid on cinders and sand, with just enough soil for roots of thymes, arenarias and "Johnny-jump-ups."

Take a look at last year's dahlia clumps. If the eyes are showing, they may be divided now for forcing to make cuttings; otherwise hold them back if they are sound and solid, hoping that the eyes will show a little later. Any time in June is a good time to set out dahlia tubers; July 1st is not too late.

Attorney Wronged by Bank Mortgage Report

William Barclay Lex was incorrectly charged with defaulted mortgage interest payments in the State appraisal of the assets of the Merion Title and Trust Company, it was revealed this week.

The item, listed under the heading, "Guaranteed Mortgage Interest," said: "William Barclay Lex, $12,500; interest due of $375, but uncollectible." The existence of this item charged against him was revealed to Mr. Lex through the publication of parts of the appraisal in the newspapers.

Protesting that he was not indebted to the bank in any way, Mr. Lex communicated with J. B. Funsten, special deputy in charge of the local bank, and received the following reply:

"I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter regarding the interest on the first mortgage of $12,500 secured on premises No. 550 Hansell road, Wynnewood, Pa. Upon investigation I find that while the property was not in your name, the Bank looked to you as representative of the owner for all interest payments. It was my understanding that the property was sold at Sheriff Sale in 1930 and that the deed was issued to no one inasmuch as the sale was never completed. The property was listed under your name for the Bank's convenience, as interest payments were made by your office."

The TIRE That Taught THRIFT to MILLIONS!

FIRESTONE tires appeal to the thrifty. They give Extra Values at the lowest prices ever known.

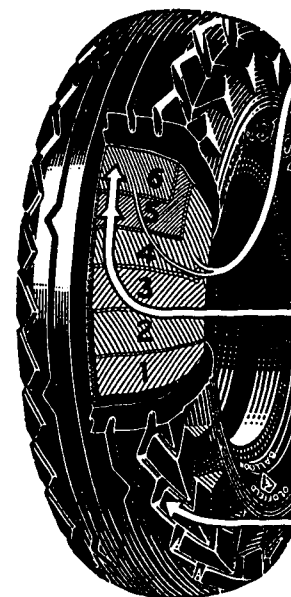

Firestone do not manufacture tires under special brand names for mail order houses and others to distribute. Special brand tires are made without the manufacturer's name. They are sold without his guarantee or responsibility for service.

You take no chances on Firestone tires. They are silent, safe, long-wearing — and each tire bears the Firestone name, which is a guarantee of satisfactory service.

Firestone's greater economies in buying, manufacturing, and distributing make possible these greater values and lower prices.

Stop at our store today. See sections cut from Firestone tires — special brand mail order tires and others. Take these sections in your own hands — compare Quality and Construction. Then you, too, will know why — "Firestone is the tire that taught thrift to millions!"

Extra Values GUM-DIPPED CORDS

The Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process transforms the cotton cords into a strong, tough, sinewy unit. Liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, guarding against internal friction and heat, greatly increasing the strength of the cord body, and giving longer tire life.

TWO EXTRA CORD PLIES UNDER THE TREAD

This is a patented construction, and the two extra cord plies are so placed that you get 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body, and tests show 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts. It sets a new standard for tire performance on high speed cars.

NON-SKID TREAD

Tough, live rubber specially compounded for long, slow wear. Scientifically designed non-skid gives greater traction and safe, quiet performance.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Head Men

"When a horse balks the balk is in his head, not in his legs. He moves on when he thinks he will," said that wise Englishman, Mr. Herbert N. Casson, recently. He was giving advice to American business men about business conditions. It's good advice, too. Good for any salesman to keep in mind. It is the prospect's head that must be sold, not his stomach, nor any other part of his anatomy, not even his predilection for golf or other forms of recreation. If he's got a head he'll use it, and if it's a better head than yours he'll dominate the situation. Many men with good heads and power to buy delegate to other men, who have good stomach capacity only, the job of "seeing salesmen." Be sure that you are in touch with the "head" man. Be sure, also, that you are a "head" man yourself.

Lists Our Blessings

To the Editor of "Our Town:"

Mr. Cowin's letter of recent date so adequately covers the conservative side of this "merger" project that it leaves little to be added. How I wish everybody really interested in the Borough would read and weigh the same logic of that letter!

There is always so much noise on the aggressive side that the voice of the conservative side is lost.

However, before any voting is done, I would plead with Narberth residents to ride or walk about the roads and streets of our immediate neighborhood and examine the roadbeds therein. Many of the roads look like streambeds and have big holes that resemble lakes on rainy days. The walks also in many places are not paved at all or have badly broken pavements.

To those who think that there is nothing but sentiment on the minds of the anti-mergerists, I beg the liberty of repeating Mr. Cowin's list of our present blessings: The Playground, Community Building and Library, the Fire Company, plus the personal interest of the members of our Council and their constant efforts to better our Borough. Are not all these things worth a few extra dollars of taxes?

Furthermore, let the agitators remember that if and when they do get into the Township they are there to stay and cannot change again if the arrangement does not prove satisfactory.

GRACE HARRIS.

Narberth Hardware Changes Hands; Beauty Shop Moves; New Salon Opens

A big sale of stock of the Narberth Hardware Company, 246 Haverford avenue, is starting this week. The merchandise has been purchased and is being sold at bargain prices by the National Merchandise and Salvage Company, of Philadelphia, which recently took over the Narberth 5c to $1 Store at 228 Haverford avenue. It is planned to combine both stores in one, at 228 Haverford avenue, and enlarge their services, with a general line of merchandise.

Her Beauty Shop, at Narberth and Haverford avenues, Narberth, is being removed by Mrs. Elizabeth I. Wisler to Green Hill Farms, City Line and Lancaster avenue. After May 1 renovating and decorating will be completed, and beauty culture in all its branches, including permanent waves, will be offered patrons.

Next Monday and Tuesday evenings Mrs. Suzanne Joret Gill will open her Suzanne Beauty Salon, 216 Dudley avenue, with a demonstration of a new method of permanent waving that eliminates heat and discomfort.

Noel, Mrs. Cockrill and Mrs. Reeves Re-Elected to Committee

process of healing and because it is highly desirable that they should be permanently healed. The voters have recorded their will and have now turned their attention to other affairs, but the practical interests of the Party and of the community remain to be served constantly. They can be better served by a feeling of friendly co-operation and cordiality than by any continuation of factional strife.

In this connection Mr. Cabrey's comment on the outcome is also significant as an indication of restored good feeling. He said:

"Despite the effort to have it otherwise, the voters simply would not believe the defeated candidates were not of the anti-organization variety. Noel's long and excellent service to the Borough also helped him immensely in retaining his office. The frequent association of those active in the opposition with insurgent causes, including my own rambles from the reservation, also contributed to the general result. Other less worthy reasons were somewhat accountable for the unusual vote.

"Narberth is definitely lined up with the Organization, no doubt about it, and with Mr. Johnson taking a firm stand in behalf of Prohibition reform, I see no reason, from a community standpoint, why it should not be. It is up to those delegated to see to it that the town secures the consideration which is its due and the representation henceforth will unquestionably be more alert as a consequence of the fracas which has just occurred."

The winning candidates have all requested OUR TOWN to express for them their feeling of appreciation to the voters who endorsed them so positively, and to say that they will regard those endorsements most seriously and will endeavor faithfully, in all respects, to discharge the duties which this election has imposed on them. They desire that all of the Republicans in Narberth shall feel that each of them is individually charged with the necessity of serving the interests of the individual members of the Party in Narberth, insofar as that can be achieved, and they each hope that all the citizens will not hesitate to get in touch with any one of them at any time.

Mr. Noel, Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Cockrill also desire to make an especial expression of their thanks and great personal obligation to the large number of citizens who worked long and faithfully for them during a strenuous campaign, and who showed a sense of personal devotion to the cause beyond that which the candidates, themselves, felt that they personally could have expected. They say that they realize that this devotion was to the cause which they represented, but nevertheless it places them under a deep sense of gratitude.

In the vote for Congressman the Organization scored an overwhelming victory. The Johnson candidate, J. William Ditter, walked away with the contest, receiving 717 votes. Robert H. Anderson, Glenside Dry, polled 251, with "Wringing Wet" James S. Boyd a poor third with 178.

The Organization strength in Narberth was made most apparent in the contest for Representative in the General Assembly between Lou Young and Fred C. Peters. Despite the handicap of opposing a local man, Peters carried the Borough 621 to 550. Young won only his home district, the Third, and that by the narrow margin of eleven votes, 109 to 98.

A wet sentiment of almost two to one was indicated in the vote for United States Senator. James J. Davis is polled 790 votes to 458 for Smedley D. Butler and 14 for Adams.

St. John's Choir to Give Series of May Recitals

Sunday will mark the first of a May program of special music at St. John's Church, Cynwyd. Brief recitals will be given each Sunday for ten minutes before the regular morning service, which begins at 11 o'clock.

Program this Sunday. Baritone solo—Gloria by Buzzi-Pecchia; harp and organ prelude by Debussy; an anthem, "By the Waters of Babylon," by Coleridge-Taylor; and a communion service by Dr. Herbert J. Tily, who is organist and choirmaster of the church; it will be given during the service following the recital.

May Music Festival to be Held at Narberth Church

The second annual music festival will be given by the choir of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, of Narberth, on Friday evening, May 6, at 8 o'clock. The musical feature this year will be "The Morning of the Year," a song-cycle by the eminent American composer, Charles Wakefield Cadman. In this beautiful musical setting is depicted the Spirit of Spring emerging from the coverlet of snow and winter's gloomy skies, through the rushing winds and bluster of March, and the enchanting laughter and tears of coquettish April, into the merry month of May, with its wealth of blossoms and "softly warbled song."

Herman A. Weise, Jr., tenor, and Frederick W. Bayard, baritone, of the Wanders' Male Quartette, of Philadelphia and New York, will render special solo selections. Mrs. Florence Kautz Sentt and Miss Florence Louise Sauser will sing the soprano and contralto solos of the evening. Margaret Squier, organist-director, will open the program with the Schulz-Evler "Concert Arabesques" on Themes from Strauss' "Blue Danube Waltzes" for piano, and the concluding chorus number will be Victor Herbert's "Italian Street Song," from "Naughty Marietta." An admission of fifty cents is being charged for the benefit of the "Building Fund" of the church.

J. Bedford Wooley, vice-president of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, conducted Tuesday's meeting in the observance of President Ralph Dunne, who is attending the Rotary Convention at Atlantic City.

world was in India. Mrs. Roberts also spoke of the present conditions in Ireland. She concluded with a short resume of Philippine affairs and the granting of its recent independence, which will become effective in eight years' time. Mrs. Roberts also gave an interesting account of the five-year plan in Russia, and the second proposed five-year plan, which will offer the citizens of that country better wages and living conditions than they formerly received. This second five-year plan is being carefully formed in order to outstrip United States as an industrial country. According to Mrs. Roberts, the trend of civilization through the ages has been westward and the Communists have in mind the establishment of their party in the western worlds, for where the people are discouraged, discontented and hungry, this party will have plenty to work upon.

Mrs. Roberts thinks that it would be a good thing to make every man and woman of voting age pay a tax to the government, thus becoming more interested in what was being done with government funds.

The soloists of the afternoon were Mrs. J. R. McClaughlin, pianist, whose selection was "Aus Dem Carnival," by Grieg, and Mrs. C. S. Wilnot, who sang "The Star" by Rogers, and "The Bird Lullaby," by Sander-son.

Mrs. Albert Davis was the hostess while Mrs. Leon Webster Melcher and Mrs. Frank X. Purcell were at the tea table.

Members of the club who went to Washington last Thursday with the club women of Delaware County were Mrs. James Sharon, Mrs. Jesse Harris, Mrs. A. Lambert Fouds, Mrs. Melcher and Mrs. Caryl E. Starr.

Mrs. Joseph H. Hongler, president of the club, will entertain the board of directors at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday. A meeting will precede the luncheon.

On Friday, May 6, Mrs. Hongler will entertain the chairmen of the various departments at luncheon and bridge. Preceding the luncheon there will be a business session.

The spring and closing luncheon of the club will be held on May 10 at 12.45. The luncheon is for members only. Reports of the officers and a program in charge of Mrs. John C. Nash, dramatic chairman, including a one-act play and group singing, are among the events planned.

The Montgomery Club Meeting of Federated Women's Clubs will be held on May 27 at 10.15 in Lansdale, Pa.

other land. There is no oppression here as in countries across the sea. Anyone coming to this country and making his livelihood therefrom, should become a citizen, for his own well-being and the well-being of others."

Others who spoke briefly were Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, president of the Republican Women of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Louise Voss Cockrill, re-elected to the county from the First District of Narberth, and Mrs. Maude Reeves, also elected to the County Committee for the Second District of Narberth at the Primaries Tuesday.

Sport Briefs

Haverford College took Dickinson College over in a track meet on Walton Field Saturday, 78 to 51. Gerenbeck won the 440 again, Gage ran the 220-yard dash in 22 seconds to equal the school record.

James Turner, of Bryn Mawr, won the shot-put for Swarthmore in a dual meet with Lehigh Saturday. "Idge" is a three letter man in college as a Freshman, a fine start for the former Maroon star. He is an honor man in his classes, also.

Bill Gunnis starred for Episcopal in a dual meet which they lost to Lower Merion last week. He hurled the javelin 158 feet, farther than Munger threw it while at the City Line School.

Haverford High is having a good season on the cinder paths. Following victories in a dual meet with Bryn Athyn, and a three-cornered affair with Ridley Park and Radnor, the boys in Red and Gold walked off with the Delco meet last Saturday held at Lansdowne High. Courbus is turning out to be a new star in the 440 and hurdles.

Norristown has a one-man track team in young Brown, colored flash. While he wins a lot of first places, his time and distances are not yet sufficient to win in first class high school competition. He will be a good pointer in the suburbs, though.

L. M. High School Notes

By BILL MACAN

The long awaited event has come and gone, in the form of the initiation of new members into the Lower Merion Chapter of the National Honor Society. It was on Monday afternoon that the members of the school student body and the parents of those chosen ones gathered to see who were the fortunate students from the Junior and Senior classes to be initiated in the society.

After introductory remarks by George H. Gilbert concerning the foundation and operation of this group, the following were called to the platform to take the pledge: From the Senior class: Dorothea Bates, Dick Butler, Walter Chowning, Ellis Curley, Eleanor DeVilbiss, Alice Edwards, Harry Easley, Margaret Grove, John Hallstrom, Evelyn Hansell, Kathryn Lukens, William Macan, Dorothy Maier and Marion Tipton. From the Junior class: Thomas N. Cook, William Davidson, John Gill, Pauline Keever, Elizabeth McCarvey, John B. McIntire, Mary Michener, Robert Newcomb, Margaret Patterson, Sturgis Poorman, James Quinn, Muriel White and William Wren.

Recognized as the highest honor awarded by the school, there were but 14 elected from the Senior group of 244, and 13 from the Junior group of 303. These were chosen by a combined vote of the student body, the faculty, and the faculty committee.

A speech of welcome by Sherwin McDowell, president of the chapter, was followed by an address by George A. Walton, headmaster of George School. The assembly was followed by a reception to the new members and their parents in the library.

The play of the "Beauty and the Jacobin" by Booth Tarkington will be presented in this Friday's assembly period. Under the direction of David Thomas, the following cast will perform: Eloise, Cecilia Link; Val- sin, John Gill; Anne DeLasey, Betty McNichol; Louis Valny-Cherault, Bruce French; Dossenville, Ned Bartlett. The costumes have been made by Monica Batchelor and Anna Tavenner, with the scenery constructed by Ralph Galbot. Maurice Slaughen- haupt is acting as assistant director.
